HELOA Awards

Whether you work in student recruitment, outreach, widening access or marketing, there is a HELOA award for you!

HELOA Awards serve as a platform to recognise and celebrate the achievements of our members. They highlight Best Practice and allow colleagues across the sector to exchange knowledge on how best to assist students in making informed decisions that contribute positively to their academic and professional journeys.

The Awards not only acknowledge individual and collective efforts but they also foster a culture of excellence within the educational landscape.

HELOA Awards categories

- Commendations of contribution
- Award for best practice in widening participation, outreach, and access, sponsored by The Rad Brothers
- Award for best practice in student recruitment, sponsored by UK University Search
- Award for best postgraduate initiative, sponsored by FindAUniversity
- Award for best undergraduate initiative, sponsored by Logistica
- Award for best small or low budget initiative, sponsored by Unifrog

Commendations of contribution

Commendations of contribution are awarded to HELOA members who have made an exceptional contribution, either over the past year or over a longer timeframe, to enhancing best practice in student recruitment, outreach, widening access or marketing.

The judges want to know how individuals' actions and commitment enhanced student recruitment, outreach, widening access or marketing.

Any full or associate member can nominate someone for a Commendation of Contribution. The nominee must be a member or immediate former member of a full or associate member institution.

HELOA

The nomination will be assessed against 6 categories:

- 1. Innovation - Assess the level of creativity, originality, or novel approaches demonstrated. Look for solutions that break new ground or introduce fresh perspectives to existing challenges.
- 2. Collaboration - Evaluate the degree to which the individual has collaborated with others to achieve the contribution. Consider their ability to work effectively in teams, share knowledge, and leverage diverse perspectives.
- 3. Leadership - Recognise individuals who have demonstrated effective leadership qualities, such as inspiring others, fostering collaboration, or guiding teams toward achieving shared goals.

4. Sustainability - Consider whether the contribution is sustainable over time and whether it promotes long-term positive outcomes without causing harm to the environment, stakeholders, or future generations.

5. Initiative - Recognise individuals who have taken proactive steps or shown initiative in identifying and addressing challenges, seizing opportunities, or driving positive change.

6. Adaptability - Recognise individuals who have demonstrated flexibility, adaptability, and agility in responding to changing circumstances or requirements while still making meaningful contributions.

Judging process

Each category will be shortlisted by a panel of judges and the shortlisted submissions will be notified by week commencing 10 November 2025, with the full shortlist published on the HELOA website. At this time you may be asked to provide additional information.

The shortlisted entries for the Award for Best Practice in Widening Participation, Outreach and Access and Best Practice in Student Recruitment award will be required to attend the HELOA National Conference and present their project to the attendees. Member institutions will then cast their vote for the winners. This will be one vote per institution in attendance.

Entry Rules

The winners of the Award for best postgraduate initiative, Award for best undergraduate initiative and Award for best small or low budget initiative will be determined by the judging panel.

All winners will be announced at the HELOA Awards Dinner taking place in Stratford-upon-Avon on Thursday 15 January 2026, all shortlisted institutions will be invited to attend. Please note, if you are not already attending the conference, charges will apply.
