

Reflections on the Lived Experiences of Neurodivergent Student Recruitment Practitioners.

Agenda

Introductions & Aims

Panel Member Stories

Closing Remarks

Meet the Panel

Reflections & Questions

Session Aims

- Provide a safe, confidential space to reflect, listen, share and learn from each other.
- Reflect on the challenges and rewards that being neurodivergent brings to our workplaces.
- The opportunity to ask questions to panel members.
- Access additional resources for ongoing learning and support.
- Allow the panel members to have the final words of the

- Advice about how to obtain an assessment or diagnosis of neurodivergence will not be given.
- Answers to all questions may not be feasible due to knowledge/institution-specific policies & processes/time limitations of the session.
- Panel members reserve the right to respectfully decline to answer specific questions.

Meet The Panel

Gemma
Spencer University
of Lancashir

Heather
Cliffe University of Lincoln Bishop

Jo Reed
London
School of Economics

Luke
Chapman University
of Mancheste

Sophie
Flieshman University
of Mancheste

Reflections and Questions for the Panel

Post Session Resources & Questions

Scan the QR Code
to access some useful resources &
post any questions
for the panel.

Thank you for listening