

Professional Development Conference

Supporting students through their HE journey, during the cost of living crisis

3rd May, 10-4.15 Online

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| 10am | Welcome and introduction |
| 10.10am | ‘Learning with the lights on’ Dr Andrew Jones, Head of Policy and Research, Million Plus Dr Andrew Jones will set the scene on how the cost of living crisis is impacting students at University, who is most at risk and current best practice in supporting students. |
| 10.50- 11.30 | How is the cost of living impacting student views towards HE? TBC This session will look into how prospective applicants are feeling about the cost of living, and whether this may be influencing student’s decision making around HE |
| | Comfort Break |
| 11.30-11.40 | How are students coping with the cost of living? Tom Allingham, Save the Student |
| 11.40- 12.10 | "Tom Allingham from Save the Student shares insights from their latest nationwide surveys, including the challenges students are facing and what more can be done to support them at this time." |
| 12.10-1.10 | Advising students on finance and where to find support, Lesley McDowell, Stephen Jones, Kevin McMullen, Student Loans Company In this session, Leslie, Stephen and Kevin from the Student Loans Company will share an update on student finance applications for 2023/24 and lead regional breakout sessions to discuss trends in each area and where to signpost for support. |
| 1.10-2pm | Lunch Bitesize best practice panel |

2-3pm

In this session we'll hear from a panel of Universities who will sharing best practice on how they've been supporting their students struggling financially.

Comfort break

3-3.10pm

Student panel discussion

3.10-3.40pm

In this session, students from across the UK will share their experiences of managing their studies around the cost of living, and how universities can support them.

3.40-4.10

Recession, graduate employability, and value of HE, Charlie Ball, Prospects Luminate

In this session, Charlie Ball will share the most recent graduate labour market information, explore whether a recession will impact the perceived value of HE and how we as university staff can share this information to prospective students.

4.10-4.15

Final thoughts and closing remarks