Search for university events

Here's where you start your search for your next university event. This section is for teachers and career advisors interested in booking events for school groups, as well as students and parents looking to book places on events directly. If you're not sure which subject area to search, please use our subject guide.

Events listed include university and college taster days, workshops, residential, open days, outreach events and widening participation opportunities.

What can schools do at UniTasterDays.com?

Request university event support for your school groups

- ✓ A school or college visit to a university
- ✓ A university visit to your school or college
- ✓ University support for your careers fair

You supply your event requirements. We will put you in touch.

Request your own university event for your school groups

You can use this free service for any event you have in mind for your school groups, including subject specific event requests, careers fair invitations and general university visits into school, or to a university - for any secondary year group.

After you have submitted your event details, we will get in touch with each institution you select using the contact details we have for them - to let them know you would like to work with them. If the university can offer their support, they'll be in touch with you to discuss the event directly.

To get started:

- Please enter the event support you would like and your school or college postcode below.
- then, click the 'Find my School or College' button.
- Finally, choose your institutions and enter your event requirements.

"I just wanted to feedback how useful this service has been. We had positive responses from around half of the institutions contacted. As a very busy Head of Careers, it was a really efficient way for me to organise a higher education speaker for our conference. Many thanks indeed."

A guide to clearing and how your students can prepare for A-Level results day

Blogs to forward on to students |

Having missed out on examinations this year, the end of your student's school experience has already been a turbulent one; and many will be especially anxious not only about receiving their A-level results this year, but also what their university experience is going to look like. This blog provides an overview of some of the support on offer.

Use our technology – The Connect Listings Tool

You can enjoy the benefits of our technology with an event listing tool embedded into your own university website.

What is it?

The event listing tool will seamlessly fit into your own site, and will automatically display all your events added to UniTasterDays.com. It is locked to only show your events, and not those of your competitors.

The tool is currently in use throughout the sector, by organisations including UCAS, HELOA, Uni Connect networks and individual universities.
