You must enter all your qualifications from secondary education onwards – whether you have the result (even any that were ungraded) or you’re still awaiting exams and results.

First you need to add details of where you’ve studied, or are studying, then add qualifications.

Start by clicking Add place of education.

For example, you can't say you attended 2 or more places of study full-time during the same date range.

Red text are warnings and mean something is wrong and blue text is for information you need to be aware of.

Overseas qualifications will be listed alphabetically under the name of the country they were taken in.

Search 'other' to see the full qualifications list.

The qualification dates you can select are based on those you entered when you entered your place of education.

You need to enter the awarding organisation – speak to your teacher or adviser if you're not sure.

If you haven't finished the qualification or had your result, then you must choose Pending.

It's entirely up to you whether you include module information. However, some courses may state in their entry requirements that they'd like to see module results – in which case make sure you include them on the application.

Some courses may require you to disclose your criminal conviction status.

We'll only show this question if the course choice requires it.

Criminal convictions

Applied Health & Social Care (top-up) at University of Worcester

This course has entry requirements which ask you to disclose further information regarding any spent or unspent convictions or any past criminal activities, and may also require a criminal records check.

▼ Help with criminal convictions

Further checks may also be required under the Disclosure and Barring Service.

If you have spent or unspent convictions from a court outside Great Britain, additional checks may be carried out depending on the records available in respect of the applicable country.

A criminal records check may show all spent and unspent criminal convictions including (but not limited to) cautions, reprimands, final warnings, bind over orders or similar and, to the extent relevant to this course, may also show details of any minor offences, fixed penalty notices, penalty notices for disorder, ASBOs or VOOs.

Please tick if you have any spent or unspent criminal convictions or other punishments that would show up on a criminal records check? *

If you tick the box you will not be automatically excluded from the application process.

It is recommended that you read our page on criminal convictions and if these issues are in any way relevant to you, you should obtain further advice from appropriate bodies. UCAS will not be able to assist you in this respect.

You will be asked this question each time you add a course that requires a criminal conviction declaration.

There is a maximum of 5 choices and choice restrictions still apply (a maximum of four courses of medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine or veterinary science).

Once all choices are added you must mark the section as complete to be able to submit.

On the right, there is a search bar labeled 'Search for courses' with a magnifying glass icon and the text 'Find courses and providers'. Below the search bar is a large blue button with a white plus sign and the text 'Add choice'. Underneath this are two white cards, each representing a course choice.
